

Résumé

JAMES WIZNEROWICZ

•
295 Wahoo Way Apt. #1211 Charlottesville, VA 22903
+1 (434) 989 0399

email: james@jameswiznerowicz.com • website: www.jameswiznerowicz.com

EDUCATION

2004	Doctoral of Musical Arts Composition Major Music Theory Minor	University of Arizona
1999	Masters of Arts Theory/Literature of Music	Eastern Michigan University
1994	Bachelor of Arts Music Major Spanish Minor	Eastern Michigan University
1987	Associates of Arts	Delta Community College

COMPOSITION TEACHERS

Daniel Asia Ladislav Kubik Anthony Iannaccone

WORK EXPERIENCES

2004- present	Virginia Commonwealth University	Adjunct Lecturer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• teach private applied lessons in composition</li></ul>
2000 – 2003	University of Arizona	Graduate Teaching Assistant	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• taught second year music theory and aural skills</li></ul>
1997 – 1999	Eastern Michigan University	Adjunct Lecturer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• taught first year music theory and aural skills</li></ul>
1995 – 1997	Eastern Michigan University	Graduate Assistant	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• proctored and evaluated music theory placement exams</li><li>• assisted in publishing concert events information and programs</li></ul>

PERFORMANCES, HONORS, AND AWARDS

- added to the 2004-2008 Artist Roster for the Artist-in-Education Residency program for the Commonwealth of Virginia
- Micrologus for Solo Flute and Aria for Solo Bassoon were aired on NPR's program "Theme and Variations" during the week of December 17th, 2003 reaching over 50 radio stations across the United States.
- Fandangullo for solo organ received several performances including Atlanta and Berlin.

